Venice, January 23. Prince Eugene ſet out from Carzago the 24th paſt for Vienna, having left General Raventlau to command the Imperial Army in his abſence. The German Forces in the Veroneſe have of late been conſiderably reinforced. The Po has again overflowed its Banks, and done very great Damage to the neighbouring Country.

Dantzick, January 30. Our laſt Advices from Poland ſay, That the King of Sweden having paſſed the Bug with his Army on the 18th Inſtant, marched that day to Popolavia, near Branski; and that he was ſince advanced within 4 Leagues of Tikozyn: Upon notice whereof the Muſcovite Forces were preparing to leave that Place, and to march to Grodno, where the King of Poland was aſſembling his Army. They write from Courland, that the Magazine of the Dunamunder Fort near Riga was lately blown up by Accident, and 300 of the Swediſh Gariſon there were buried under its Ruines: And that General Bawer, who commands the Muſcovite Forces on that ſide, was marched from Mittau with a Body of 4 or 5000 Men, in order, as was ſuppoſed, to lay hold of this Opportunity to ſeize that Caſtle.

Vienna, January 30. Prince Eugene is frequently in Conference with the Miniſters of this Court, in order to concert Meaſures for the effectual carrying on of the War in Italy; for which purpoſe his Army will be very conſiderably reinforced. We have an Account from Hungary, that a Body of Imperial Troops had obliged the Malecontents who were before Trenſchin to raiſe that Siege, having forced their Intrenchments, killed many of them, and taken ſeveral Priſoners. We hear alſo, that General Herbeville having entirely driven the Malecontents out of Tranſilvania, and refreſhed his Troops in that Principality, is now on his March back again to Hungary, where his Arrival will ſoon put a ſtop to any Progreſſes the Malecontents might make on that ſide: But it is hoped that the Poſture of their Affairs on one hand, and on the other his Imperial Majeſty's Clemency, and the Declaration which is to be ſent them from hence by Count Rechteren, will encline them to take ſuch Reſolutions in their Aſſembly at Miskotz, as may put an End to thoſe unhappy Troubles, and reſtore the Peace and Tranquility of their native Country.

Berlin, January 30. The Differences between the Elector of Hanover and the Duke of Wolfembuttle, concerning that Duke's Pretenſions upon the Country of Saxe-Lawembourg, are now ended, by an Agreement lately concluded at Borgdorf, by which the Duke, in conſideration of a certain Sum of Money to be paid him by his Electoral Highneſs, deſiſts from thoſe Pretenſions. Upon the late Motions of the Forces on both ſides in Poland, our Court has thought fit to ſend a Reinforcement of about 4000 Men to their Troops in Pruſſia, for the better ſecuring of thoſe Frontiers, and maintaining our Neutrality between the ſeveral contending Parties. Our Officers are raiſing Men with all poſſible Expedition, in order both to recruit and augment our Troops.

Francfort, February 7. The Diet of the Circle of the Upper Rhine continues aſſembled here, to ſettle ſeveral Matters in order to the bringing their Quota of Troops early into the Field the next Campaign. The Gariſon of Fort Louis being ſtill very cloſely block'd up by our Forces, is in great Diſtreſs for want of Proviſions, Fuel, and other Neceſſaries; and we hope will
